Seeking Renewal & Revival

2024 Conference of African Diaspora Churches

From June 28-30, some 200 members of Canadian diaspora churches met at Parliament Community Church (Regina). SKMB congregations Mission Pentecostal Church (Regina) and Carmel Pentecostal Church (Saskatoon) hosted the three-day event, while SKMB, Multiply and ABMB sponsored it. The purpose of the gathering was to inspire spiritual renewal and revival. The challenge of proclaiming the Gospel in Canada as part of a historical prophecy was repeatedly highlighted. The theme text was 1 Kings 18:21 – “If the Lord is God, follow Him.”

Five choirs from Regina, Saskatoon, Edmonton, and Calgary brought tremendous joy and praise. International speakers included Rev. Charles from France, Rev. Bake Jean from Australia, Rev. Rwanda, and Rev. Erik from the USA. Rev. Anicet and Rev. Jean de Dieu from Edmonton and Calgary, respectively, came from Canada. Doug Hiebert, Multiply African Region Director (Ontario) and Paul Loewen, ABMB Director

(Alberta), also addressed the conference.

Several profound encouragements were proclaimed throughout the conference:

- We have a prophetic call to proclaim the gospel in Canada, and we must not relinquish it.

- We must walk by faith, not fear.
- We must know who God is, who we are, what God is doing and how we can join him.
- Our youth needs to be disciplined in their faith and inspired to reach Canada with the Gospel.
- We must pray for the leading and filling of the Holy Spirit.
- We must pray for the peace of our new home (Canada) and build relationships with our Canadian neighbours.

A Gift That Will Keep Giving

A new barn at Redberry Bible Camp

This spring Redberry had the privilege of acknowledging the significant influence Blaine Lake Gospel Chapel has had on the camp over the years.

Earlier this year Blaine Lake Gospel Chapel made the difficult decision to close their doors. While we grieved this loss with them, we also celebrated the legacy and impact they had in the community of Blaine Lake and surrounding area, including Redberry Bible Camp. Even as they closed their doors their thoughts were on Redberry as they donated a significant amount of funds and items from their church to the camp.

In response to the funds given, Redberry was able to build a much-needed pole-barn shelter for our horses. The horse program at Redberry has held a special significance to Blaine Lake Gospel Chapel as long-time members Lew and Ruby Wall were founders of this program. In 1968 as the program was established Lew was involved in training up newly weaned horses to be used at the camp. Since then, many others from Blaine Lake have taken specific interest in this program so it was with this invested interest in mind that we choose to dedicate their new Pole Barn to the memory of the Blaine Lake Gospel Chapel.

Thanks to the help of a crew of workers that BP Banisters in Saskatoon supplied to the camp we were able to construct the shelter and celebrate it along with the members of Blaine Lake Gospel Chapel in late spring with a brief coffee and an opportunity to meet the horses that will be enjoy the new structure.

We, at Redberry, are so grateful for those that have chosen to invest in the camp and have been blessed greatly by Blaine Lake Gospel Chapel over our many years working together. We will miss this little rural church community but hope they will be remembered in this tribute to the legacy of Blaine Lake Gospel Chapel as it lives on at Redberry Bible Camp.
